

A large, stylized outline of a cup or bowl, formed by thick black curved lines. The lines are smooth and elegant, defining the shape of the cup without filling it. The top rim is a single continuous line, while the sides are composed of several curved segments that meet at the top and bottom.

*The Boston
CupTM*

9th Annual